Alexandria Gazette alexandria Gazette for 1880

TUESDAY EVEN'G., JANUARY 27.

ON THE JUDGE'S SIDE -A good judicial anecdete is told in the Louisville Courier-Journal. In one of the Western States a case was tried, and at its termination the judge charged the jury, and they retired for consultation. Hour after hour passed and no verdict was brought in. The judge's dinner hour arrived and he became hungry and impatient. Upon inquiry he learned that one obstinate juryman was to ding out against eleven. That he could not stand, and he ordered the twelve men to be brought before him. He told them that, in his charge to them, he had so plainly stated the case and the law that the verdict ought to be unanimous, and the man who permitted his individual epinion to weigh against the judgment of eleven men of weigh against the judgment of eleven men of wisdom was unfit and disqualified ever again to act in the capacity of juryman. At the end of this excited harangue a little squeaky voice came from one of the jurymen. He said: "Judge, will your honor allow me to say a word?" Permission being given he added: word?' Permission being given he added: "May it please your honor, I am the only man on your side."

Sultan Abdul Aziz is described as a highly intelligent madman with a voracious appetite, eating oleven times a day, and taking his choice from an invariable menu of rinety-tour dishes He has a manis for cock-fighting backgammon. and slicing off with a sword the neads of turkeys kept in a yard for his entertainment. He is under pettic at government, the Sultan Valide being virtually the ruler of Turkey.

30 BBLS NEW YORK EARLY ROSE SEED POTATORS for eale by THOMAS PERRY, Agt.

The Alexandria Gazette, begun in 1709, is the oldest newspaper in Virginia, and it has survived, with few exceptions, all the public presses in America which saw with it the dawn of the nineteenth century. It lives, too, not in decay or decrepit, but full of life and youthful vigor, giving all the news, telling the truth without fear, favor or affection, trenching on the privacy of no man's home, but full to the brim with all public information, and giving daily honest udgments of public men and public measures.

It furnishes the news telegrams of the New York Associated Press and of Reuter's European agency, being, with but two exceptions, the only paper between Baltimore and Richmond that is thus connected with the great fountains of the world's news.

With the coming year all the long tried and improved methods of making a standard newspaper will be continued, with such additional facilities as part experience justifies the proprietor in believing will add to the espacity of the Gazette to serve its readers. It expects to render faithful service to the city, the state and the country by a candid criticism of men and events in the interest of the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

The year 1880 will be a period of critical interest in both the Union and the Commonwealth. BLACK CASHMERES, Tamise and Henricita | The election of the eighteenth President of the United States will take place, with all the combinations precedent, and counts; consequences and settlements subsequent, will call for record in the coming volume. The developments of the financial situation, which may portend affinence and comfort or poverty and privation to thousands, are now in progress, and the columns of the Gazette will note each step as well as chronicle the result. A new and striking foreign policy is among likely events, and the absorbing interest of it cannot be overestimated. In Virginla there is political chaos and industrial and commercial depression. The way out of this quagmire will fill many of these paragraphs with information of rare interest.

> To meet all the demands upon it in an exceptional year, the Gazette will be made a WASH. INGTON and RICHMOND NEWSPAPER. as well as an ALENANDRIA JOURNAL The Richmond and Washington news of the past year has left little to improve, but you greater effort will be made to insure absolute perfection in these departments.

> The city of Alexandria will find as usual its daily history in each evening's issue, and the intelligence of that section of the Commonwealth which nature has bound to Alexandria by the curvature of its mountains or the courses of its rivers as well as that portion linked to us by the iron bands of railways, will be assiduously

> The Business and Commercial columns of the Gazette will be filled with the earliest and most exact commercial nows, edited with such painstaking care as will render an error, where even slight errors are dangerous, impossible.

> The Cattle Markets of all the leading points of the world whose rates affect this market will be quoted, and regular statements of the Baltimore, Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria sales of cattle will appear.

> The Flour, Grain and Produce movements will be noted daily, and the sales of the Alexandria and neighboring markets given with accuracy and dispatch. The Greecey and other markots will receive constant attention, and the money or stock markets of the country epitomized for its columns, full details being given to all stocks, &c., which find investors in this section of the country.

The advertising columns of the Cazette offer inducements which experience has shown to afford greater returns for a small investment than any other which can be made.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

The beginning of the New Year, which in this case marks the advent of another decade of the world's progress, is deemed a fit time for new features, so that from this date the Gazette for the country (tri-weekly) will be supplied at FOUR DOLLARS per annum, in advance.
